POLITICAL TALK

News From the Various Training Camps Gives a Line on What Is Going On.

The Republicans have opened their headquarters at the Auditorium Hotel with Col. Henry Casson of Madison, Wis., in charge. H. D. Martin of La Crosse, Wis., will route the speakers. John Eversman, personal secretary and right-hand man for Congressman William B. McKinley, chairman of the committee, will assist in running the headquarters here in the absence of the chairman. Mr. Eversman is assistant treasurer of the committee.

"Chairman McKinley will distribute his time between Chicago and New York during the campaign," said Secretary Casson. "A great amount of the literature will be sent out from the permanent headquarters in Washington. We have not taken an inventory of the situation yet and are not ready to make any comments."

The three representatives of the committee who were at headquarters today are "stand-pattens" in their sympathies and inquired anxiously after the situation in Illinois from the newspaper men.

Democratic congressional headquarters have been opened in the Congress hotel. The campaign book is being placed in general circulation by the democratic congressional committee from its Washington headquarters. It is a large book and the chapters indicating the issues to be discussed in the canvass are set forth in the following order:

"The tariff and cost of living."
"Prices of commodities and increased cost of living."
"Republican extravagance."
"Cannon and Cannonism."
"Publicity of campaign contributions."
"President Taft and his administration."
"Merchant marine."
"Corporations and labor."

Judge Chetlain has decided to run again and has filed a petition.

There is a big fight on Congressman McDermott in the fourth district. There are eight candidates already in the field against him and more coming. Michael G. Walsh, backed by Gov. Deneen's friends, is an avowed insurgent candidate for the Republican nomination. The fifth district heavily Democratic, is without a Republican fight.

Judge Frank Crowe has made a good record on the Municipal bench.

Seven Democrats are out for the legislative nomination in the Sixth District and a close fight at the primaries looks certain. Matt Aller is gaining in strength every day.

Judge McKenzie Cleland has shown himself to be a friend of the poor and down trodden in the Municipal Court.

The legislative fight in the Twenty-ninth District on the Democratic side is becoming warmer every day. John R. Durso, Capt. Farrell, Patrick H. O'Toole, J. B. Devoney, P. J. Sullivan and George Diederich are each claiming the victory as theirs.

The democrats have announced the following program:

One hundred thousand votes to be the goal at the primaries Sept. 15, despite the fact that there is no contest as to the principal offices.

Candidates to be assessed according to their means and disposition—no arbitrarily fixed assessments.

All candidates to "pull together" instead of "each for himself."

Patronage to be apportioned (if the ticket should be elected according to the turnout of party voters at both the primaries and election.

Right of elected candidates to insist upon high grade appointees recognized, however, as paramount to ward patronage claims.

Congressman Boutwell's honest answer to his critics that as a Republican he could only see his way clear to vote for Republican policies in Congress has made him stronger with the Republicans of the ninth district than he ever was.

The Democrats are going to make a hard fight to reduce the Republican majority in the County towns of this County.

Matt Aller would make a splendid member of the Legislature from the Sixth District, and his candidacy on the Democratic ticket will be a strong one.

Benjamin M. Mitchell is again the choice of the Democrats for the legislature in the Twenty-first district.

Peter Bartzan's campaign for President of the County Board will be an aggressive one from the start.

A better man cannot be elected Judge of the Superior Court than Thomas Taylor, Jr. He is fitted in every way for a seat on the bench, and the Republicans in nominating him will name a winner.

O'Connell's candidacy for County Treasurer is growing stronger every day.

The nomination of James C. Dooley for Municipal Judge by the Democrats would prove popular all over Chicago.

In nominating Thomas Taylor, Jr. for the vacancy on the Superior Court bench to succeed Judge McEwen, the Republicans will be naming for that bench one of the best qualified men that has ever aspired for a seat upon it. Mr. Taylor is one of the ablest and most highly esteemed lawyers in Cook County, with a long and honorable record to his credit. He will prove an honest, fearless and painstaking Judge. Mr. Taylor has been eighteen years master in chancery of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and is one of the best known men in the legal profession. He was born fifty years ago, and his boyhood was spent at Canton, Ill., where he attended the public schools. He then entered Knox College at Galesburg, worked his way through and was graduated in 1881. Among his classmates were Judge Merritt W. Pinckney, E. A. Bancroft, S. S. McClure and Robert Mather. He was active in college affairs, and was president of the leading literary society. Mr. Taylor entered the law school at Harvard in 1882. Again working his way, he was graduated with honor in 1885, receiving the degree of LL. B. Almost immediately he was admitted to the Suffolk County (Massachusetts) bar, and for a year practiced in Boston in the office of Burdette & Gooch. He came to Chicago in 1887, and since that time has been actively engaged in law practice. As master in chancery he has heard and decided more than 1,500 civil suits. Mr. Taylor's name is on the roster of the Chicago University, Law, City, Hamilton and Marquette Clubs. He is on the executive committee of the Illinois Humane Society, is vice president of the Onwentsia Club, and is a member of the Chicago, Illinois and American Bar Associations. Governor Deneen in 1906 appointed him a delegate to the Congress on Uniform Law. Mr. Taylor's home is in Winnetka.

Judge Charles S. Cutting's honest and fearless record on the Probate Court bench has earned for him the confidence and admiration of everybody, irrespective of party affiliations.

People who are howling for an income tax will change their tune if they get one. The rich will escape as usual, by perjury, while the poor will have to pay.

Andrew J. Graham's mayoralty boom is growing with great rapidity, and the popular West Side banker is getting stronger every day.

Edward Osgood Brown, when on the bench, was at all times a conscientious, honest and upright Judge, and he deserves the nomination on the Democratic ticket to fill the vacancy on the Circuit Court bench.

Loop platforms are too short.

An outer harbor should be built.

Following is a list of the offices to be filled next fall:

George K. Schmidt has made a splendid record on the County Board, and he will be renominated and re-elected, as he deserves to be.

Albert C. Clark will win in a walk in his campaign for reelection to the state senate in the thirteenth district. His honest and able record has won for him the support of all classes.

William Kolacek is making a fine record as president of the West Park board. He is a conscientious, able and straightforward man, who is looking out at all times for the best interests of the people. The West parks were never in a better condition than they are now.

Peter Bartzan gained for himself a widespread popularity as building commissioner under Mayor Dunne, and he is daily receiving hearty assurances of support from all over the county in his campaign for president of the county board on the democratic ticket. That he is a vote getter goes without saying, and the whole county ticket will be strengthened by his nomination.

Edward J. Brundage has always served the people's best interests in every position he has held and his election as Judge of the Superior Court would prove no exception.

John J. McLaughlin will be renominated and reelected to the Legislature from the Nineteenth District. He has the rank and file of the Democrats with him for renomination and he has the people, irrespective of politics, with him for reelection.

One of the "reforms" which was sneaked through the balloting by giving it a false label, was the law changing the term of mayor from two to four years.

The following well known Chicago lawyers have indorsed the candidacy of Thomas C. Clark for Judge of the superior court of Cook county, and have signed his petition: James C. McShane, S. S. Gregory, M. L. McKinley, Alfred E. Sullivan, Abraham Meyer, William Dillon, Russell Whitman, Henry G. Miller, James Turnock, Frank H. McCulloch, Henry Russell Platt, Lewis W. Parker, William S. Every "reform" that has been adopted lately has been in the interest of the bosses and against the interests of the masses of the people.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis can always feel certain that he has the loyal backing of every Chicago Democrat for any position he may aspire to.

Alderman Thomas F. Scully's nomination for Municipal Judge by the Democrats will prove a popular one.

The direct primary law now in force has taken every bit of power out of the hands of the people.
